BODEGAS VILANO

SINCE 1957

DENOMINACIÓN DE ORIGEN
RIBERA DEL DUERO

Vine, landscape and people are the starting point for Vilano's wines. The fruit is harvested and selected by hand by families that have nurtured the vines for three, and even, four generations. This sense of community is the basis of Vilano's core identity. Founded as a cooperative in 1957 by the parents and grandparents of the current members, Vilano has grown while remaining faithful to two fundamental priorities: continuous improvement and the preservation of the centennial vineyards that shape its wines and heritage.

Having started with a processing capacity of 300,000 kg of grapes, it now processes up to 2.6 million kg, and is planning further expansion, with the belief that the wines of Ribera del Duero have an ever-growing potential among the world's best. This belief has marked the evolution of the company throughout its half-century of history.

The winery is one of the most historic in Ribera del Duero, founded before it was granted DO status. It has always been committed to both tradition and excellence, as a result of effort, work and, above all, knowledge and passion for the grapes, wines and terroirs of Ribera del Duero. Desiderio Sastre, Vilano's general manager, has developed the company's vision and applied overarching innovations which led Vilano to receive excellent ratings from the world's best critics, as well as numerous international awards.

Vilano's international presence has grown significantly and its wines can be found in some of the best restaurants the world over. Truth and essence are found inside the bottles; aromas and flavours that leave an indelible mark. Each of Vilano's wines encapsulate the history of Ribera del Duero, the stories of each grower, and a step towards a modern vision of the region.

With Tempranillo (Tinto Fino) as the queen variety and inspiration for the whole range, Vilano produces a diverse range that includes a sparkling, a rosado, and seven different reds. These are all fermented in stainless steel, unstemmed and under controlled temperature. After malolactic fermentation has taken place over winter, a preliminary tasting and evaluation of aromatic profile, structure and ageing potential determines which wines will become Crianzas, Reservas or Signature blends.

Each wine will then be aged in selected French, American, central and/or Eastern European oak, with the different origins of the wood contributing with specific aromas and tannins. This is the alchemical process through which the fruit from the 300 hectares of vineyards tended to by Vilano’s members become wines that stand for Ribera del Duero’s tradition and future potential.

FULL FLAP
RED BLEND
by VILANO

FULL FLAP RED BLEND 2023

- In the heart of the Ribera, where traditions dictate the rules of wine, a rebel is born: Full Flap Red Blend. A wine that dares to take off from the past, challenging the rules with audacity and character. Here, passion for the land meets the nonconformist spirit of those who believe that greatness lies beyond labels. This blend, outside the appellation but within the soul of its terroir, combines the best of four varietals that do not usually share the stage: Tempranillo, Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon. An unexpected blend that breaks new ground and promises to surprise palates. The base is the Tempranillo of the latest vintage, vibrant and fresh, loaded with juicy red fruit. Its energy intertwines with the velvety smoothness of the Merlot, while the Cabernet Sauvignon adds structure and character. Its 9-month barrel aging adds layers of complexity: soft notes of vanilla, cocoa and a slight toasty touch that caresses the palate. But it is its little secret - a touch of residual sugar - that maintains freshness and enhances the fruit, achieving a perfect balance without verging on 15% alcohol. A subtle gesture, forbidden by the rules, but necessary for its soul to be free. Full Flap is not a D.O. wine, but perhaps it is the wine of the future: a declaration of intent, an invitation to explore new horizons in a region that, after centuries of tradition, could be ready for new revolutions. Will Ribera dare to fly beyond its borders? With Full Flap Red Blend, the journey has just begun.
- WINEMAKING: Blend of three varieties made separately in stainless steel tanks. Aged for 9 months in medium toasted French oak barrels.
- TASTING NOTES: Upper middle layer with violet rims. High aromatic intensity with berries, soft notes of vanilla and sweet pastry tones. On the palate, wide, long, sweet, silky tannins, persistent with meatiness and freshness, candied red fruits in the retronasal route.
- SERVING TEMPERATURE: 14º - 16ºC.

FULL FLAP ALBARÍN BLANCO

- VINTAGE 2025
- APELLATION: D.O LEÓN
- GRAPE VARIETY: 100% ALBARÍN BLANCO
- GRADE: 13%vol.
- The origins of Albarín trace back to medieval Europe, where monks traveling through Spain's northern regions carried vine cuttings of Savagnin Blanc from France's Jura region. In Spanish soil, this grape found a new home, thriving in calcareous and clay soils under Atlantic influence, which gave it a crisp freshness and a short ripening cycle. Over time, Albarín developed its own identity, producing aromatic and expressive white wines. However, it almost vanished due to the phylloxera crisis and rural exodus of the 20th century, as commercial grape varieties took its place. Thankfully, visionary winemakers preserved and revived this extraordinary grape, ensuring its future. The resurgence of Albarín has led to the creation of exceptional wines like Full Flap Albarín, a true enological treasure. Crafted with passion and precision, this wine is the result of a bold decision by Bodegas Vilano, a winery known for its innovative spirit. Recognizing the growing demand for unique and expressive wines, they embraced this rare variety to create something truly special.
- Full Flap Albarín undergoes meticulous bâtonnage on lees in tanks, enhancing its complexity and texture. Its limited production ensures exclusivity and guarantees the highest quality standards. Every bottle is a special edition—a refined luxury for wine enthusiasts seeking authenticity and originality.
- .TASTING NOTES:Full Flap Albarín, D.O. León, made from 100% Albarín Blanco, shines with a clean, bright yellow-green hue. Its intense aromatic profile bursts with tropical and citrus fruits, delicate herbal notes of basil and spearmint, and a subtle muscat-like touch. On the palate, it is fresh, with a smooth entry, a long and persistent finish, and a refined bitterness that balances the whole experience.
